5. Theme of the Week Sheet - 27th September 2026

Theme of the Week - The Will of the Father

The first theme of the week for this year was titled 'Renounce ourselves'. From the Gospel of that week, we heard Jesus tells us that we shouldn't take the easy way in life but the more difficult way and follow Him "If anyone would come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow me." And it was put to you that there may be many hardships to face this year, and it was important to confront these face on. So, after a month, how have you got on? Have you had many challenges and if so, did you confront them and carry your cross or did you take the easy way out? Every day of our lives we must make choices and maybe already this year we have. Sometimes we make the wrong choice and do something we shouldn't. Remember that whenever we've had a change of heart, Jesus is always ready to give us another chance to put things right.

The Gospel from this Sunday, Jesus gives another parable in response to the questioning of his authority by the Chief Priests. Jesus was prompting an answer from them about the authority of John the Baptist, who not only preached righteousness but lived it. The parable cuts the ground from under their feet. They who saw themselves as the ones with training and scriptural learning (The Chief Priests), should have known and recognised what is from God (the first son), but Jesus is inferring that they are like the second son who says 'yes' but fails to carry out God's will. Prostitutes and tax collectors at the time are often bracketed together because they were considered 'sinners'. But these are the ones who accepted and believed in Jesus and experienced a change of heart and life (they were more like the first son).

Jesus' parables are always designed to challenge us to examine our own responses to God. The Chief Priests, to whom this parable was directed to, were failing to recognise the reality of the situation. Have there been times when you too have been in this position? Times when you have said you were going to do something and not done it? Maybe at the start of the new year! I'm going to work really hard and make sure I'm all up to date with all my revision? Now consider your response to the demands that being a follower of Jesus calls you to in your day-to-day experiences. Can you identify what were the 'no' moments of the last few days, weeks or years?? What were the 'yes' moments? How could you consider changing your negative responses in the coming week and be more Prophetic and Intentional in following Christ? Remember it is not going to be easy; He told us this at the start of the year! But He will always be with us ready and waiting for us to say Yes to Him!

The Will of the Father

Weekly Reflections
27th September 2026
26th Sunday in Ordinary

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew 21: 28-32

At that time: Jesus said to the chief priests and the elders of the people, 'What do you think? A man had two sons. And he went to the first and said, "Son, go and work in the vineyard today." And he answered, "I will not", but afterwards he changed his mind and went. And he went to the other son and said the same. And he answered, "I go, sir", but did not go. Which of the two did the will of his father?' They said, 'The first.' Jesus said to them, 'Truly, I say to you, the tax collectors and the prostitutes go into the kingdom of God before you. For John came to you in the way of righteousness, and you did not believe him, but the tax collectors and the prostitutes believed him. And even when you saw it, you did not afterwards change your minds and believe him.'

Prayer for the Week

Righteous Father,

In my wrong decisions you give me forgiveness. Please pour forth your mercy so I too can forgive others. Help me to open my heart so I can make the right decisions and live out your spirit in my own actions.

Through Jesus Christ our Lord

Amen

Day 1

Have you had many challenges this term? And if so, did you confront them or did you avoid them and take the easy way out?

Day 2

Who did the Chief Priests failed to recognize? How does Jesus illustrate this in the parable He gives?

Day 3

How can you be more Intentional in prioritizing the teachings of Jesus in your life and be Prophetic to others?

Year 7 News

Well done, Year 7, on another excellent week! I have been particularly impressed with the mature and positive way you have conducted yourselves during your exams. You should be very proud of the effort, focus and resilience you have shown.

A huge well done to all the Year 7 students who took part in the Cricket Festival. It was fantastic to see you representing the school and demonstrating great teamwork and enthusiasm.

Congratulations also to our newly formed Year 7 Boys' Football Team. We look forward to following your progress throughout the year!

Next week, it is the turn of our Year 7 Girls' Football Team, who will play their first fixture against Trevelyan. We wish you the very best of luck and hope you enjoy representing the school.

Finally, a reminder that Monday is Picture Day! Come to school looking smart and ready for the camera!

Have a lovely weekend :)

Year 8 News

Hello all,

I hope we have all had a lovely week

It has been a nice week for the Year 8s. We had our boys Football team unfortunately lose their first game since joining our school but I am sure the boys will bounce back in their next fixture. There will be lots of upcoming fixtures to be excited about. More on this to follow.

Please can we ensure that over the weekend students pick up any equipment that they may be missing. What is expected of them can be found in their journals

Have a lovely weekend

Mr Cooper-Santos - Head of Year 8

Year 9 News

Well done, Year 9! We have had another really positive week, with 1,608 positive posts recorded. This is a fantastic achievement and reflects the effort, positive attitude and commitment many of you are showing towards your learning. We also had our reading and spelling test today, so I hope everyone gave it their very best effort. Keep up the great routines and continue bringing that positive attitude to your learning it really does make a difference.

A reminder about homework: this week, there were again too many homework Xs. Please make sure you are getting your homework completed during the week or over the weekend, rather than leaving it until the last minute. Good organisation and completing homework on time are important routines that will help you to make continued progress.

Have a lovely weekend.

Mrs Viegas - Head of Year 9

Year 10 News

Another fantastic week for Year 10! I am delighted to share that Year 10 achieved an outstanding 98% positive ratio this week.

Look after your loved ones. It is clear that everyone has found their rhythm and settled into Key Stage 4 exceptionally well. The positive start to the year has been a pleasure to see, and I am incredibly proud of the way Year 10 have embraced the higher expectations and challenges.

It has also been fantastic to see so many students taking part in this week's House Competitions, representing their houses. A special congratulations goes to our BTEC Sport students, who have been working hard after school to film the practical elements of their course.

As always, look after your loved ones,

Mr Hunt - Head of Year 10

Year 11 News

Well done to Year 11 for once again surpassing 1,000 positive points, achieving 1,012 positive points this week. There are still areas where standards need to improve, but there are also encouraging signs: overall attendance has risen slightly to 95.03%, while incidents of disrespectful behaviour and out-of-class behaviour have both reduced.

Homework – immediate improvement needed

Homework is now a serious concern. This week, Year 11 received 62 Homework Xs, more than double the 30 recorded last week. At this stage of Year 11, this is simply not good enough.

Parents and carers need to intervene at home immediately where homework is not being completed. Please check ClassCharts daily, make sure your child knows what is due and when, and ensure that homework is completed on time and to a high standard. Year 11 students cannot afford to lose learning through repeatedly missed homework as we move closer to GCSE examinations.

Compulsory interventions

Our Year 11 intervention programme is now underway. If your child has been selected for an intervention, attendance is compulsory. These sessions have been put in place because subject teachers have identified that your child would benefit from additional support, practice or targeted teaching.

If there is a genuine reason why your child cannot attend, for example a medical appointment, a parent or carer must contact the school and provide the relevant evidence. Students should not simply decide for themselves that they are not attending an intervention.

Sleep and routines at home

We have also had concerns about a number of Year 11 students appearing extremely tired, putting their heads on desks or, in cases, falling asleep during lessons. Sleeping or having heads down on desks during lessons is not something we will accept. Our teachers are seeing sleeping as a concern for individual students who are now being closely monitored.

Please support us by establishing firm evening routines at home. Students should be getting sufficient sleep for their age, and phones, gaming devices and other screens should not be freely available late into the night. Late-night screen use can interfere with healthy sleep routines and leave students struggling to concentrate the following day. A sensible cut-off time for devices, alongside a consistent bedtime, can make a significant difference.

Year 11 is a demanding year, and students need to arrive each morning rested, equipped, punctual and ready to learn.

There are many students working extremely hard and demonstrating exactly the attitude we want to see. Our job now is to make sure that becomes the standard across the whole year group. The coming months matter enormously, and school and home need to work together to ensure students make the most of every opportunity.

Every lesson matters. Every homework matters. Every intervention matters.

Effort turns potential into achievement.

God Bless,

Mr Whiteside - Head of Year 11

Year 12 News

This week has seen many of our Year 12 students become more deeply involved in the life of the wider school. Training sessions for Student Coaching have begun in earnest, and I am pleased to say that we have had a considerable number of applications for a variety of different Student Leadership roles across the school. For those applying to be a Head of House, this will even include beginning to prepare for taking their very first assembly.

Learning is very much in full swing now and the students have been told that the deadline for switching subjects is today, as from this point onwards it will be very hard to catch up on missed work. Please do check in with your son or daughter to see what Flipped Learning they have been set in order to help them prepare for their upcoming lessons. They should be set at least one hour of Flipped Learning for every hour in lessons. Some of this work can obviously be completed during study periods at school, but inevitably some of it will need to be done at home as well. In essence, they should be busy and have plenty to do - please do let us know if you think that's not the case!

Overall, they have made a great start to the year and hopefully this will continue in the weeks to come!

Have a great weekend!

Miss Stevens - Deputy Head of Sixth Form

Mrs Finn - Head of Sixth Form

Year 13 News

It has been another important week in the life of our Year 13 students. The Student Leadership team have been busy working on a variety of different projects with Mrs Dunleavy and we are very grateful to them for their ongoing and continued commitment to the life of our school.

Those who applying to UCAS early for Oxbridge or Medicine and Dentistry have been busy taking entrance exams and finalising their personal statements. We wish them every success in the process and trust that the experience will be a valuable one for them all.

Please do check in with your son or daughter to see how much Flipped Learning they have been set and whether this is being completed on time. Obviously we are monitoring this inside of school as well but we really appreciate your support as much as possible. They should have at least one hour of Flipped Learning for every hour of lesson time. Coursework is also a focus at the moment in a wide variety of subjects and teachers are continuing to give detailed feedback to students on how they can improve. It is essential that the students give their coursework the time and attention it needs early on so that they can submit their work to a good standard before the deadlines early next year, leaving them much freer then to focus on revision for exams.

If your son or daughter wishes to attend a University Open Day but it is during school time, please do let us know, as we should be able to authorize this absence. We are looking forward to an exciting time ahead as plans for their future begin to take shape!

Have a great weekend!

GCSE and A Level Additional Qualifications in a Modern Language

September 2026

Dear Parents and Carers,

RE: GCSE and A Level Additional Qualifications in a Modern Language

Each year we offer our students the opportunity to achieve an additional GCSE or A Level in a Modern Foreign Language. If your son/daughter is fluent (including being able to competently read and write in another language), you may wish them to have the opportunity to gain a qualification within this area. These exams will take place in the summer of 2026.

We strongly recommend that your son/daughter take this opportunity if possible to achieve an extra GCSE / A Level qualification. Through experience, we recommend students in Year 10 and above sit the GCSE and once the GCSE is achieved, they may then sit the A Level in Year 12 and above. Through our commitment to our pupils, the cost of exam entries will be covered by the school. There may be a charge for the speaking component dependent on numbers and availability of examiners for the specific language. Students who apply in younger years will be asked to submit another form when they are in the appropriate year groups.

Whilst advice will be given by the school, no additional tutoring will unfortunately be available. Please also note that this opportunity is in addition to the GCSE or A Level French or Spanish for which they may already be studying. This will be beneficial for many reasons but most notably their competitiveness when applying to universities and/or the workplace.

Information on exam dates, subject components and qualifications can be found on the various exam board websites: Edexcel or AQA.

Please register your interest by completing the slip on the following page and returning it to the school office by 3:30pm Friday 29th January 2027.

Yours faithfully,
Ms S Dar

Aims

- 1) To appreciate nature and its resources.
- 2) To create awareness of the environmental problems and adopt various measures to protect the earth.

Geography club meetings will be held every week after school on Fridays, 3.20-4.00pm. Open to year 7 to year 9.

In these sessions we will have geography quizzes, geography games, competitions, creating landform models and planting herbs.

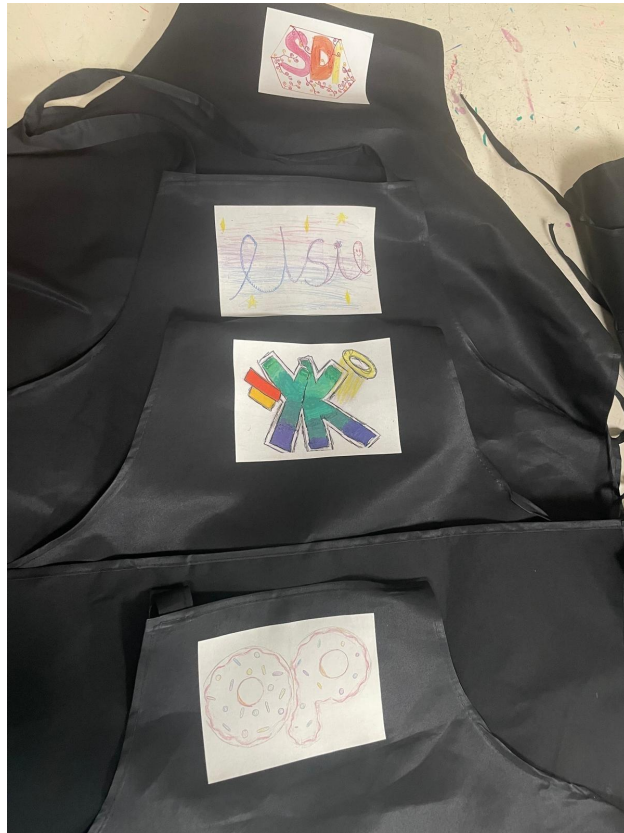

Design and Technology Department

Pupils in Key Stage 3 will have received a letter from Mr Bieniek regarding ingredients for food lessons. Thank you to those who have already paid the requested contribution via ParentPay.

Pupils will also soon be sent a survey about allergies and intolerances; it is vitally important that this is completed promptly and accurately. Thank you for your support with this.

Year 7 pupils will be receiving their personalised aprons shortly. In their first Design and Technology lesson pupils designed logos, which Mrs Suleyman has this week been transferring onto aprons for use in Food lessons. Pupils should make sure they have their aprons for every food lesson.

Year 7's have also been working on their first assessed task- to make a mini-me. Following on from their first homework, pupils worked with card to make a 3D graphic product which represented them in some way. We look forward to seeing the whole year 7 line up by the end of next week.

I Can do Maths

Solution to last Week's Puzzler

E Let the correct answer be x . Then $\frac{x}{4} = 9 + x$. So $\frac{3x}{4} = -9$. Therefore $x = -\frac{4 \times 9}{3} = -12$.

Solution to the Break-time Teaser:

- C Let the three consecutive integers be $n - 1$, n and $n + 1$. Then $(n - 1)n(n + 1) = n - 1 + n + n + 1$. So $n(n^2 - 1) = 3n$. Hence $n(n^2 - 4) = 0$. Therefore $n = 0$ or $n^2 = 4$. So $n = -2$, 0 or 2 and the sets of three consecutive integers in which the sum of the integers equals their product are $\{-3, -2, -1\}$, $\{-1, 0, 1\}$ and $\{1, 2, 3\}$.
